

Dogs.

(7) Upon every dog which may be brought into the town after the first of June, if kept therein thirty days or more, a tax not exceeding one dollar for permission to keep said dog in the town, which permission shall not extend further than the last day of May, next ensuing.

Bill posters.

(8) Upon every person engaged in the business of posting, distributing or tacking up bills, posters, signs or advertisements of any kind, a license tax not exceeding five dollars: Provided, this shall not apply to persons or merchants who are residents of the town who are advertising their own business.

Other business or profession.

(9) The board of aldermen shall have power to levy an annual license tax on any business, profession, trade or avocation of any kind carried on in the town of Kernersville not before enumerated herein, not to exceed five dollars a year.

License year.

(10) That the license shall begin on the first day of June of each year, and when a license is taken out after the first day of June it shall be the same as if taken out on the first day of June: Provided, nevertheless, that the said taxes must be uniform for all in a class.

Proviso: uniformity.

Doing business without license a misdemeanor.

(11) Any person carrying on or practicing any business, profession, trade or avocation of any kind upon which a license tax is levied, without having first obtained a license therefor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not less than five days or more than thirty days, or both.

Punishment.

CHAPTER VII. STREETS, SQUARES AND PARKS.

Powers as to streets.

SEC. 49. That the board of aldermen shall have power to grade, macadamize and pave the streets and sidewalks, and to lay out, change and open new streets, and widen and change those already made or open, and make such improvements thereon as they may deem best for the public good; also to lay out, regulate and establish parks and squares within and without the town limits for the use of the town, to regulate and protect public grounds, and protect shade trees of the town.

Superintendent of streets.

SEC. 50. That the board of aldermen shall appoint a competent superintendent of streets to have charge of the streets of the town under the supervision of the board of aldermen; and may appoint such other officers to care and improve the streets, squares and parks as it may think proper.

Apportionment of expense of sidewalks.

SEC. 51. That every owner of a lot on a street, if so ordered by the board of aldermen, shall bear one-half the expense incurred in improving the curb and laying concrete walks as far as it may extend along such lot; said work to be done with such materials and in such a manner as may be required by the board of aldermen, and all work done under this section shall be done under the strict super-

Specifications of work.
